DAVID JONES LIMITED SIGNS NATIONAL ETHICAL CLOTHING CODE

David Jones Limited advises that it has today signed the National Retailers/TCFUA Ethical Clothing Code of Practice.

David Jones has for some time been a signatory to the original ARA/TCFUA code of practice. The company has played an active role in working with the ARA and the TCFUA to develop further improvements to that code which will see Australian retailers continuing to take a lead role in endeavouring to prevent exploitation and ensure the fair treatment of outworkers involved in the clothing industry.

Merchandise Director for David Jones, Mark McInnes said, "David Jones is pleased to have been able to play a role in developing this agreement and importantly we believe the code is a commercially viable one. The signing of this agreement continues David Jones long standing position of support for the ethical treatment of outworkers."

Barry Tubner (TCFUA National President) said, "I am pleased that David Jones has signed the Code. I believe that this is positive move for the David Jones brand and encourages customers to have confidence in their purchases from David Jones."
