SHARE TRADING POLICY

SHARE TRADING POLICY

I. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The David Jones Limited (“the Company”) Share Trading Policy regulates dealings by the Company’s directors, officers, consultants and employees in shares, options and other securities issued by the Company (which, for the purposes of this policy, include financial products issued or created over Company securities by third parties, or associated products).

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the Company’s directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are aware of the legal restrictions on trading shares, options or other securities while such a person is in possession of unpublished price-sensitive information concerning the Company.
- 2.2 Additionally, the policy is intended to minimise the chance that misunderstandings or suspicions arise that the Company’s directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are trading while in possession of unpublished price-sensitive information.
- 2.3 The policy recognises it is illegal for a person to trade in the Company’s securities when he or she possesses unpublished price-sensitive information concerning the Company. This is regardless of whether the terms of this policy have been complied with.
- 2.4 A breach of this policy or the relevant laws will be regarded as serious misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action including dismissal.

SHARE TRADING POLICY

3. RESTRICTIONS ON TRADING

- 3.1 Consistent with the legal prohibitions on insider trading, all of the Company's directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are prohibited from trading in the Company's shares, options or other securities while in possession of unpublished David Jones price-sensitive information concerning the Company.
- 3.2 The Company's price-sensitive information is information, which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of securities in the Company.
- 3.3 It is assumed for the purpose of this policy that the Company's directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and certain other employees are likely to be in possession of price sensitive information by virtue of their position. Accordingly, unless there are unusual circumstances, as determined by the Board, trading in the Company's shares, options or other securities by directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees in the possession of price sensitive information, is limited to the following periods:
- (a) within six weeks after the date of release of the Company's half-year and annual results to the Australian Stock Exchange;
 - (b) the rights trading period when the Company has issued a prospectus for those rights; and where the person is not in possession of any price sensitive information which has not been made publicly available to the market.

- 3.4 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are prohibited from trading in the Company's shares in each of the following circumstances:
- (a) if in possession of price-sensitive information;

SHARE TRADING POLICY

- (b) outside the permitted trading periods referred to in clause 3.3 above; and
- (c) trading for a short term gain.

- 3.5 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are prohibited from entering into transactions in financial products which operate to limit the economic risk of security holdings in the Company over unvested entitlements or vested entitlements subject to a holding lock or restriction on dealing (“Restricted Entitlements”), including, without limitation, any hedging or similar arrangement in respect of unvested entitlements or Restricted Entitlements held or granted under any equity based remuneration scheme.
- 3.6 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees are prohibited from dealing in the securities of outside companies about which they may gain price-sensitive information by virtue of their position with the Company.
- 3.7 Directors, officers and members of senior management are prohibited from entering into any stock lending or other similar arrangements in relation to their security holding in the Company.
- 3.8 In addition, the Company requires that:
- (a) directors must advise the Chairman of:
 - (i) a proposed trade in the Company’s shares, options or other securities prior to any trade and confirm they are not in possession of any unpublished price-sensitive information;
 - (ii) any transaction or arrangement proposed to be entered into, renewed, altered or closed out which may operate to limit the economic risk of their vested and unrestricted security holdings in the Company and confirm they are not in possession of any unpublished price-sensitive information;

SHARE TRADING POLICY

- (iii) any margin loan arrangement proposed to be entered into in relation to security holdings in the Company, by completing the attached Margin Loan Form; and
 - (iv) any proposed transfer of Company securities into an existing margin loan account; and
- (b) officers, consultants and members of senior management must advise the Company Secretary or, in his or her absence, the Chief Executive Officer, of:
 - (i) a proposed trade in the Company's shares, options or other securities, prior to any trade and confirm they are not in possession of any unpublished price-sensitive information;
 - (ii) any transaction or arrangement proposed to be entered into which may operate to limit the economic risk of their vested and unrestricted security holdings in the Company and confirm they are not in possession of any unpublished price-sensitive information;
 - (iii) any margin loan arrangement proposed to be entered into in relation to security holdings in the Company, by completing the attached Margin Loan Form; and
 - (iv) any proposed transfer of Company securities into an existing margin loan account.

3.9 Where a director, officer, consultant or member of senior management enters into a transaction or arrangement which operates to limit the economic risk of their vested and unrestricted security holdings in the Company, the Company may, where appropriate, disclose the fact and nature of that transaction or arrangement (eg. in the annual report).

SHARE TRADING POLICY

- 3.10 The restrictions on trading under clause 3 do not restrict participation in the Company's employee share and option plans or the long term incentive plan in accordance with the Rules of the relevant Plan and the terms of any offer, but apply in respect of entry into transactions or arrangements which may operate to limit the economic risk of a security holding in the Company and the trading of the Company's shares, options or other securities to which participants become entitled under those plans.
- 3.11 Directors, officers, consultants and members of senior management are required to notify the Company Secretary in writing within three business days after any dealings in the Company's shares, options or other securities including:
- (a) the entry into any transaction or arrangement which operates to limit the economic risk of a security holding in the Company;
 - (b) the entry into a margin loan arrangement in respect of Company securities as previously advised in the Margin Loan Form;
 - (c) transferring Company securities into an existing margin loan account; and
 - (d) selling Company securities to satisfy a call pursuant to a margin loan.
- 3.12 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees should not procure another to trade in Company securities in circumstances in which that director, officer, consultant, member of senior management or other employee is himself or herself precluded from trading in Company securities under this policy and by law.
- 3.13 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees should not directly communicate price-sensitive information or cause that information to be communicated to another person if they know or should know that the other person would be likely to buy or sell the Company's shares, options or other securities or to communicate that information to another party.

SHARE TRADING POLICY

- 3.14 Directors, officers, consultants, members of senior management and other employees must ensure external advisers maintain confidentiality in respect of price sensitive information of the Company.

4. INSIDER TRADING

- 4.1 The requirements imposed by this policy are separate from, and additional to, the legal prohibitions in the Corporations Act on insider trading.
